CLOSE RACES PREDICTED IN TWO MAJOR LEAGUES

Every Team in Both National and American Organizations Has Been Strengthened for 1909 Fight—Second Division Teams May Be Troublesome.

Every team in both the National and American Leagues has been strengthened for the coming season, and the indications now are that the race in each organization will be even closer than in 1908. Managers of the teams of the second divisions of the leagues have been more active than ever before, and this year these teams probably will not be such easy pickings for the leaders as they have been in past years.

NATIONAL LEAGUE TEAMS

Although New York will feel the loss of Doherty and Chicago the loss of Kling, both of these teams have added some dashing young players, and each is in fine shape for the impending fight. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia have added a number of fast youngsters, and they should be strong contenders for first place. Clark Griffith and Roger Bresnahan have bolstered up the Cincinnati and St. Louis teams, and Boston and Brooklyn have been materially strengthened.

Following is the roster of the National League teams:

The Chicago Team.
President, Charles W. Murphy; Manager, Frank L. Chance. Catchers—Moran, Needham, Archer. Pitchers—Lundgren, Pfeister, Reulbach, M. Brown, Fraser, Overall, Coakley, Krob, Hagerman, White. Infielders—Chance, Evers, Steinbock, Tinker, A. Hoffman, C. Hoffman, Zimmerman, Kane. Outfielders—Sheppard, Schulte, Howard, Browne, Stanley.

The Pittsburgh Team.

Pitchers—Phillippe, Leever, Lefield, Camnitz, Willis, Maddox, Adams, Barry, Nelson, Brannan, Vall, Tilton. Infielders—Abstein, Abbaticchio, Wagner, Storke, Eoffel, Barbeau, Leach, J. Miller. Outfielders—Clark, Mueller, Wilson, R. Thomas, Kane, Hyatt, Esmond.

The New York Team.
President, John T. Brush; Manager, John J. McGraw. Catchers—Schiel, J. Meyers, McGraw, Wilson, P. Bresnahan. Pitchers—C. Mathewson, Ames, Wilse, Durham, Crandall, Weiner, Marquard, Keuppner, Raymond, Leiders, Gansler, L. Doyle, Devlin, Bridwell, Merkle, Fletcher, Outfielders—Seymour, Murray, O'Hara, De Vore, Herzog.

The Philadelphia Team.

Brown, Moran, Sparks, Coveleske, Van Dyke, Foxen, Infielders—Bransfield, Doan, Grupp, Knabe, Shean, Hamilton. Outfielders—Titus, Magee, Osborne, Deinger, Clement, Hanford.

The Boston Team.

Boultes, Ferguson, Chappelle, McCarthy, Mattern and George. Infielders—Stem, Ritchey, Z. Sweeney, Thomas, Dahlen, Starr. Outfielders—Bates, Beaumont, Becker, Beck.

The St. Louis Team.

McKelvey, Bell, Rucker, Wilhelm, Holmes, Infielders—Tim Jordan, Hummel, Lennox, Pattee, Alperman, Stange, Melvieve. Outfielders—Lumley, Burch, Sebring, McWilliam, Catterton, Kistner.

The teams will enter the race as above given, although here and there an experimental player may be dropped.

The Team Managers.
In the National League this season there will be four managerial changes as against two such changes last year. At Cincinnati Clark Griffith, for five years manager of the New York American League club, succeeds John Gabel as team handler; at Boston, Catcher Frank Bowerman takes the place of Joe Kelley, who goes to Toronto; at St. Louis, Catcher Roger Bresnahan, traded by New York to St. Louis, succeeds manager of the Cardinals; and at Brooklyn Harry G. Lumley displaces Patsy Donovan. Of the four new managers all are active players except Griffith, and even he is still competent to pitch an occasional game. McGraw, Murray and Griffith will thus be the only bench managers in the senior major league this season.

The American League Teams
Detroit and Cleveland look like the first two teams for the American League. The White Sox have been weakened by the loss of Pledger Jones, their peerless manager. St. Louis has done some strengthening, and again promises to be a contender for the pennant. The New York Yankees, Washington, Boston and the Athletics have good teams, and they are going to give the other aggregations a bunch of trouble. In fact the Yankees and Athletics expect to be in at the finish.

Following is the roster of the American League teams:

The Detroit Team.
President, Frank J. Navin. Manager, Hugh Jennings. Catchers—Schmidt, Stange, Beckendorf. Pitchers—Donovan, Mullin, Killian, Willett, Summers, Suggs, Winter, Works, Spear, Laffite. Infielders—Rossman, Schaefer, O'Leary, Killifer, Bush, Moriarty.

The Cleveland Team.
President, John H. Kilfoyle. Manager, Napoleon Lajoie. Catchers—Bemis, Clarke, Easterly, Land, McGuire. Pitchers—Joss, Young, Rhoades, Berger, Leblond, Falkenberg, Sitton, Wright. Infielders—Stovall, Lajoie, Turner, Bradley, Perring. Outfielders—Plick, Birmingham, H. Hinchman, Josh Clarke, Goode, H. Lord, D. Sullivan.

The Chicago Team.
President, Charles A. Comiskey. Manager (probable), Wm. J. Sullivan. Catchers—W. Sullivan, A. Shaw, Weaver, Payne, F. Owens. Pitchers—Owen, White, Altrock, Smith, Walsh, Manuel, Scott, F. Miller, Fiene, Lange. Infielders—J. Donohue, G. Davis, Lee, Tannehill, Parent, Purcell, Atz, Zelder. Outfielders—Jones, Dougherty, Hahn, Anderson, Cravath, Bader, Matticks.

The St. Louis Team.
President, Robert L. Hodges. Manager, James McAllester. Catchers—Crisger, Wells, Miller, Stephens, Andrews. Pitchers—Howell, Powell, Petty, Waddell, Dineen, Bailey, McGill, Criss, Graham. Infielders—T. Jones, Wallace, Williams, Justus, Peters, Hartzell, Ferris, Griggs. Outfielders—Stone, Hoffman, Schweitzer, Heidrick.

The Boston Team.
President, John J. Taylor. Manager, Frederick L. McGraw. Catchers—Spencer, Madden, Donahue, Curran. Pitchers—Morgan, Burrell, Arrolanes, Cletche, Steele, Wood, Chech, Ryan, Infielders—Vachell, C. Davis, Murphy, Nicholls, E. Collins, Baker, Barry, Barr, Lynch, McInnis. Outfielders—Hartsel, Oldring, Jackson, Heidmuller, Strunk.

The Washington Team.
President, Thomas C. Noyes. Manager, Joseph Cantillon. Catchers—Kahoe, Street, Blankenship. Pitchers—Tom Hughes, C. Smith, W. Johnson, Burns, Kealey, Tannehill, Gray, Groom. Infielders—Freeman, James Delahanty, Unglaub, Conroy, G. F. McBride, Schipka. Outfielders—Ganley, C. Glymer, Milan, Edmondson.

The New York Team.
President, Frank J. Farrell. Manager, George T. St. Louis. Catchers—Kleinow, Blair, W. Sweeney. Pitchers—Chesbro, Doyle, Glade, Now-ton, Lake, Manning, Warhop, Wilson, E. McConnell, Schmitt, Ford, Quinn. Infielders—Chase, Ball, Elberfeld, La-porte, Gardiner, Knight, Ward, Austin. Outfielders—Keeler, Hemphill, McIlveen, Engle, Cree, Demmitt.

The New Managers.
Last season there was but one club in the American League which changed managers, and that was the Boston Club, which substituted the veteran catcher, Fred Lake, for that other veteran catcher, Jim McGuire. This year there will be only two changes, considering Lake as a hold-over, he having finished the 1908 season as Boston's manager, and having been re-appointed for 1909. In Chicago the retirement of Pledger Jones will necessitate the appointment of a new manager, who may be announced any day. It is probable that the mantle will fall on either Catcher Sullivan or Shortstop George Davis. The real newcomer in the American League is George Stallings, who has assumed charge of the New York club, he thus making his second attempt at major league management. The other managers of the American League—Lajoie, Mack, Cantillon, Jennings, McAllester—have won their spurs, and are too well known to require any extended description here.

Lynchburg's Team.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., April 10.—The indications ten days before the Virginia League season opens are that the following team will represent Lynchburg at the opening: Pitchers, Orth, Eddard, Moser, Varnuelle and Griffin; Catchers, Ross and Caul; First Base, Bigbie; Second Base, Bernard; Short, Lawrence; Third, Ziegler, and Hooker; Wallace and Moreland in the outfield. The team will play six games next week, and then have three days for team work before the season begins here with Roanoke on the 22d instant.

TEAM HAS PULLED ITSELF TOGETHER

Washington and Lee Now in Good Shape for the College Season.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEXINGTON, VA., April 10.—With Wednesday's victory over St. John's College the Washington and Lee baseball team pulled itself together for the college season proper. The game was a pretty one, replete with sharp hitting, good pitching and timely errors by both teams. St. John's hunched down, and the support given him, the indications are that the team will be the strongest Washington and Lee has had for some years. Robert H. Brown is coaching the squad for his fourth season.

The strength of the team is rather remarkable, since the entire infield is composed of freshmen. In fact, the only veterans on the team are Captain Hood, Anthony and Paredes. The management is greatly disappointed that the contemplated Southern trip failed to materialize. The schedule was practically complete, when the University of Georgia and the Georgia "Tech" stated that they would be unable to meet Washington and Lee, as arranged. The trip was necessarily abandoned on that account. It was then too late to arrange a Northern trip.

The Pitching Staff.
At present the pitching staff is composed of Paredes, Lowe, Gwathmey and Watts. Paredes has always shown himself to be a cool and reliable man on the slab, and his hit will be feared, and whenever he does get in a hole is famous for the way he pulls out. This is the little Southerner's third season.

Lowe surprised the fans in the opening game with Fishburg School by letting the "preps" down without a hit in the ten-inning contest. After the second inning not a man reached first, although Pitzer, the heavy-hitting State "Leaguer," faced the Kentuckians. Lowe's work was excellent, giving him gilt-edged support, playing without an error. Lowe was not on the squad long last season, but this year he and Paredes should do some stellar thing. Gwathmey's work against Colgate was poor, although this is his third season, and Lowe had to finish the game after the fifth. Watts is a freshman from Kentucky Military Institute, and has good stuff. He has been in the Pittsburg High School, bids fair to make a backstop the equal of any in college sport. He knows the game perfectly and pulls off some eye-openers in fooling base runners. Before coming to Washington and Lee, he was eagerly sought by both Pennsylvania and Princeton, and his knowledge of the game, combined with his throwing to bases, his catching, hitting and base running would make him a valuable man on any team.

Strae, the big fellow who holds down the initial bag in such good style, comes from Roanoke College and is reputed to be a good man with the stick. Shuford, the second baseman, is a fast, clean fielder, and Speed is the surest shortstop seen on the diamond for a long time, while Herring, from the Central High School, in Washington, plays a splendid game at third. Herring is equally as good if not better than Brown, the fast third sacker of the 1908 team.

The outfield, composed of Captain Hood, left; Gannon, centre, and Anthony, catcher for the past three seasons, in right, is sure to give good service. Gannon and Anthony are strong with the stick. Hodgkin, Graham and Clarke are good substitutes, Hodgkin being an especially strong hitter. On the whole, the team is made up of sharp fielders, good batters with a few exceptions, and the White and Blue aggregation should be able to give an excellent account of itself in every game.

NOTICE OF CONTEST.
South Boston High School, Takes Good Game from Scottsburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., April 10.—The South Boston High School, defeated the Scottsburg High School, by a score of 4 to 2, in a game played at Scottsburg, Va. The game was hotly contested throughout, but South Boston showed superior work.

The score: R. H. E. South Boston High School, 4 2 4. Scottsburg High School, 2 0 2. Batteries—South Boston High School, Guthrie and Nesbitt; Scottsburg High School, Owen and Newbill. Umpire, Fayler.

Fishburne Wins.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BASIC CITY, VA., April 9.—Playing amid a dust-scattering wind, shifting sunshine and shadows, and with a temperature admirably suiting football, the Fishburne club defeated the Baltimore City College in a well played but poorly umpired seven-inning game on the Fishburne Military School's campus to-day. Such decisions as "Strike" and "Ball" and "Out" and "Safe" with a few equally "patented" ones, given mostly by the home team, some team by the "home" umpire, quite naturally did not assist the visitors in continuing a 10-9 fight, and in the last half of the seventh the visiting pitcher, laughing with the other players, let the P. M. S. bat the ball when the visitors were pleased.

Up to the time the playing hours were equalized, both teams playing clean and creditable ball. The game was called to allow B. C. C. to take the evening train to Bridgewater, Va.

News of Horses and Horsemen

(BY W. J. CARTER, "BROAD ROCK.")
Jamestown Racing Association, for racing dates from the Jockey Club. It is the intention to give a meeting following that of the Maryland-Jockey Club at Pimlico. The Jockey Club will hold its session for the first meeting held at Jamestown, but since that time the ruling against those who took part in the sport has been rescinded, and the promoters have reason to believe the request for dates will be granted.

The meeting will take care of a number of horses that have hardly class enough to take part in the larger meetings held at New York, and it is a season that would not conflict with any meeting to be held at any of the Long Island tracks.

Preparations have been made for an excellent season, and with the sanction of the Jockey Club, an announcement will be made of the intentions of the Norfolk sportsmen—Exchange.

Mr. Lane's Steeplechasers at "Guthrie Hall."
The steeplechasers owned by J. E. Lane are doing well at Guthrie Hall. His beautiful country home, near Esmont, in Albemarle county, Va., "Guthrie Hall" is one of the show places of Albemarle. The master of "Guthrie Hall" is a student of blood lines, and at the same time a student of the horse at the farm. Herman Flippen, who hails from Charlottesville, has charge of the horses in training, which is to be taken as a pretty sure indication of the quality of the horses.

"Guthrie Hall" will be fit and ready to start when taken to the races. Flippen has raced horses from Canada to New Orleans, and thence westward to the Pacific. He has won many of the big Virginia races, and through the all Virginia trainer has devoted most of his time during recent years to the chasers. Flippen's stable numbers about a dozen head, and probably half of them will be taken to the Baltimore meeting at Pimlico, while later he will take a tour of the Canadian circuit will be made.

Flippen Ships From "Guthrie Hall" to the Pimlico Meeting, at Baltimore.
The horses to be shipped to Baltimore include a grand old bay gelding, 6, by Waterlevel, dam Runaway, by Algerine, the Virginia-bred son of Abdel Kader and famous old Nina, by Boston. This big and handsome gelding, who was imported twelve years ago in 1908, and established a record in a steeplechase event at Hamilton Park, where he beat Jimmy Lane and other good horses at two miles and a half. Woodside, chestnut, aged, by Newwood, dam Bell Andrews, by John Happy, started in a number of races, and was often a winner. Bell the Cat, bay gelding, by Carlsbad, dam Lady Loyal, Gennam, bay gelding, 5, Norwood, dam, by Hinds, and Val, the big brown gelding, 6, by Valmont, dam Frodoe, are the stable companions of Waterway and Woodside. Gennam, the developed into a grand old horse of over 16 hands, with both substance and a lot of finish. He is a full brother to the dead Imperialist, the former pride of Mr. Lane's stable, and one of the best steeplechasers ever sent out from Virginia.

Belmont and entered in the Whitney Memorial of 1904 at Belmont Park. Toots, the brown mare, 6, by imported Top Gallant, out of Adria, by imported Earl, is also in Flippen's string, and he thinks well of her, too, as she has fine size and has shown up well in her work.

Shetland Ponies Are Making History Now.
The recent importation of Shetland ponies to Virginia, by Dr. Nash P. Sneed, of Cartersville, in Cumberland county, and other well-known breeders of these midgits in this State, suggests mentioning some interesting sales that have been made in both Island and home-bred ponies this season. The miniature equines in their shaggy coats, with bushy manes and tails, have jumped into prominence of late, and, as prophesied long ago, led by exhibitors at the prominent horse shows, are taking intense interest in the breed. Charles E. Bunn, the Illinois breeder, disposed of two wonderful midgits during the Chicago International Show to Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Jr., for $10,000 each, while at a recent sale at Alliance, O., a stallion bred at the Bunn farm and called Irving, brought an even thousand dollars at auction, which establishes a record as being higher than anything heretofore obtained under the hammer in either Europe or America. Irving is the sire of one of Mr. Vanderbilt's pair, and grand sire of his mate. As to the value put upon choice mates, the two-year-old son, having simply been broken a year and last, has been purchased by a breeder at Glen Cove, L. I., for $500, a price only equalled or exceeded but a few times in other America or England.

Alto Dewey Goes to Washington.
Colonel W. Laughlin, of Fredericksburg, Va., has sold to E. F. Hall, Washington, D. C., the black colt Alto Dewey, two years old, by Admiral Dewey, 2:04 5-4, dam Avena, 2:19 1-4, dam of Mendocino, 2:19 3-4, by Palo Alto, 2:09 3-4. This colt, who has been handled for speed, having simply been broken to harness by Colonel Laughlin and jogged on the road, though the youngster has a nice way of going, and will most likely develop speed at the trot. Some distinction attaches to the black colt as a full brother to High Admiral, who was one of the fastest two-year-olds in the history of 1903 in the stable of the Illinols trainer, Charles Dean. Alto Dewey was purchased as a suckling from his breeder, Dr. J. C. McCoy, of Kirkwood, by Colonel Laughlin, who was so much impressed by the wonderful rights of speed that he saw High Admiral show in his yearling form.

Maggie S. Marshall and Her Foal.
Dr. J. P. McDonough, of this city, reports the recent arrival of a well formed, handsome brown colt, by Wealth, 2:19, out of Maggie S. Marshall, by Ben Marshall, the full brother to May Marshall, 2:08 1-4, by Billy Wilkes, son of the former great race horse Harry Wilkes, 2:13 1-4, the fastest of the sons of George Wilkes.

The dam of this good-looking youngster is out of Trinket, also of Fable's Trinket, 2:24 1-4, by Prince Goldust. She was first raced as Belle Marshall and paced to a record of 2:17 1-4, while afterward she equalled that mark under the new name of Maggie S.

The Prince William Horse Show.
At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Prince William Horse Show Association, held at Manassas, Va., a number of important matters were discussed and plans formulated for the forthcoming annual exhibition, which has been a fixture at Manassas for a number of years. The Manassas association is one of the most important of the Virginia Horse Show Circuit, and the classes for harness horses are always made attractive. At this meeting an election of officers also took place and resulted in the following selections:

N. T. DeBorja, president; W. A. Buckley, John W. Prescott and James Rickett, vice-presidents; G. R. Ratcliffe, treasurer; D. J. Arrington, manager; Thomas H. Lion, secretary.

CADETS ENCOURAGED.
Feeling Much Brighter Since Game With St. John's.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEXINGTON, VA., April 10.—The cadets are feeling much encouraged at the good showing made yesterday in the game here with the St. John's baseball team. The team showed a vast improvement in form, both in fielding and batting, and the number of hits made on the strong St. John's pitcher, Stevens, encourages the belief that in future games the woeful deficiency in batting may be made up.

The team leaves Sunday for Roanoke, where it meets the strong V. P. L. aggregation. Either V. M. L. or V. P. L. will play the Roanoke game after the conclusion of the game between the two institutes. Either Walton or Bentley will do the twirling for the V. M. L.
